

Library of Congress

Veterans History Project Collection – The Veterans History Project (VHP) of the Library of Congress American Folklife Center collects, preserves and makes accessible the firsthand narratives of the U.S. military veterans who served from World War I through more recent conflicts and peacekeeping missions, so that future generations may hear directly from veterans and better understand what they saw, did and felt during their service. In addition to unedited audio and video recorded oral history interviews, VHP accepts memoirs and collections of original photographs, letters, and diaries. You can find more detailed information about the basic requirements for a collection and the kinds of materials that VHP accepts via their website.

To search for a veteran, go to the following link:

<https://www.loc.gov/collections/veterans-history-project>